Friday 11th December, 2020

Dear Parents/Carers

During the week the school has had three confirmed positive Covid results. The cases are all involving staff and they are now at home self-isolating as Government guidance instructs. Pupils are deemed as being at no risk and so, after taking advice from Public Health, each class can remain open until Thursday 17th December (Friday is a Trust wide teacher training day).

As a precautionary measure, and following discussions with Bishop Hogarth Catholic Education Trust, the school is to undergo a deep clean over the weekend to ensure that it is clean for pupils and staff to return to on Monday.

Thank you in advance for your understanding.

Stay safe and have a lovely weekend.

Mrs JL Dolphin
